

A glossary is a mini-dictionary of words specifically from a text.

This is usually found at the back of the book and allows the reader easy access to some technical words.

What are some words that you may need to know the meanings of, in order to understand your topic better?

Word	Definition/Meaning (in your own words)
Water	H <sub>2</sub> O/water is a type of chemical that we drink almost everyday.
5c	The temperature of the ocean in iceland where a man survived long in.
Motor bike	A vehicle that is very loud but is fast.
Fan	A small or big lamp like thing that can produce cold and warm air.
Temperature	Something that you feel not like a feeling but like a coldness warmness or a coolness those are temperatures.
Wet	When there is water or anything that is watery is on your clothes or on any surface.
Thieves	When somebody steals something on purpose many times they are a thief.
Heat	When it is very hot like at the Sahara Desert in africa, that is called heat.
Minutes	When it has been 60 seconds that is called a minute, but there can also be more such as two minutes 6x2 so it's kind of like the times tables.
Iceland	A place between the greenland sea and the north atlantic sea.